Nippon Prologis REIT Awarded GRESB Green Star and Named Asia Sector Leader

Nippon Prologis REIT, Inc. (NPR) today announced it has been awarded the prestigious “Green Star” for the third consecutive year by the 2017 Global Real Estate Sustainability Benchmark (GRESB) Survey. NPR was recognized as the Asia Sector Leader, ranking second out of 57 companies globally and first in Asia.

NPR earned the recognition for outstanding performance in environmental stewardship, social responsibility and governance (ESG).

1. About the Survey

GRESB assesses the sustainability performance of real estate portfolios across the globe. The benchmark is used by institutional investors to engage with their investments, with the aim to improve the sustainability performance of their investment portfolios and the global property sector at large. GRESB ranks and scores global real estate portfolios and their asset managers in the realms of their environmental programs, social responsibility and corporate governance.

For more information about the survey, please visit the GRESB website at: <https://www.gresb.com/>.

2. NPR’s Future Initiatives

As a member of the Prologis Group, the global leader in logistic real estate, , NPR supports GRESB principles and will continue to minimize environmental impacts and maximize sustainability through formal programs within three dimensions of care: for the planet (environmental stewardship), for people (social responsibility) and for the pursuit of excellence in business (ethics and governance).
